

ILEAP (draft) Results Model
(March 2012)

Organisational Design	Expected Results	Assumptions and Risks
Impact Demonstrable contribution to poverty reduction, reduced inequality and sustainable economic growth	Intermediate Outcomes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improved outcomes from negotiations • Improved policy and regulatory outcomes • Improved productive capacities • Increased use of African economic and legal professionals to provide economic and legal advice on trade and development 	Assumptions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Beneficiary governments adopt the necessary policy changes • Political economy constraints to reform are overcome • Parallel processes work to reinforce efforts • Beneficiary governments use their enhanced capacity to improve performance • The international community exhibits “good faith” in trade negotiations • The pool of development oriented African professionals remains available for beneficiaries
Mission To reduce poverty by supporting low-income countries and regions to secure pro-development and equitable outcomes from trade and investment negotiations, implementation, and policy and regulatory reform.	Immediate Outcomes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Beneficiaries pursue their negotiating interests 2 Beneficiaries undertake policy and regulatory reforms 3 Beneficiaries design better interventions to build productive capacities 4 Beneficiaries are better able to pursue negotiating interests, undertake policy reform and build productive capacities 5 Increased African capabilities to serve as economic and legal advisors on trade and investment 6 Increased development orientation in TA & CB on trade and investment 	Assumptions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Direct beneficiaries (government and non-state) able to influence decision-making • Beneficiary governments committed to considering the advice of trade and development experts • African advisors remain interested in trade and investment issues • Providers of TA&CB retain interest to enhance development orientation in their work •
Activities <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Real time advice and counsel 2 Analytical support for informed decision-making 3 Consensus building workshops 4 Training for policy analysis skills development 5 Fellowships for enhancing trade expertise 6 Workshops to respond to short-term training needs 7 Conference Series on Trade and Development 8 Forward-looking research 9 Knowledge bank 	Outputs <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Processes for negotiations, policy reform or project development influenced 2 Enhanced skills of individuals 3 Enhanced interaction among ILEAP’s network of beneficiaries, advisors and partners 4 Increased knowledge of the role of trade and investment to support development 5 Increased understanding of approaches to technical assistance and capacity building that help trade and investment support development 	Assumptions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Beneficiary demand for ILEAP assistance remains high • Continued and sustainable Development Partner support for ILEAP activities • Sufficient core support for ILEAP to maintain strong responsiveness • ILEAP demonstrates value for money to funders and results to all